

Genealogy Pointers (07/07/2009)

In this issue:

Our 50th Birthday—Celebrate With Us

CDs Discounted in July

Westward Migration Through Virginia's York River Basin

New Books for July

What's New at the Genealogy Warehouse for July

BLOG: Revolutionary War Records

OUR 50TH BIRTHDAY—CELEBRATE WITH US

Forgive us for beaming, but 2009 marks the 50th birthday of Genealogical Publishing Company, Inc. Here's Part One of an overview of how we (Genealogical.com, Clearfield Company, and Gateway Press, included) got to this point.

During the 1930s and 1940s, Jules Chodak, the company founder, frequented book auctions and amassed a sizable collection of rare and out-of-print books pertaining to general Americana. He advertised his acquisitions in a series of catalogues and canvassed book dealers hoping to interest them in his hard-to-find titles. Trading as the Southern Book Company, he moved his office and stock out of his home to a location in downtown Baltimore, Maryland.

During the 1950s, Mr. Chodak's book dealership underwent two important changes. First, he narrowed the range and increased the depth of his interests from general Americana to genealogy, heraldry, and local history. Second, he went into the publishing business to accommodate the demand for out-of-print titles. In 1952 the Southern Book Company published its first book, the reprint edition of William M. Clemens's Virginia Wills Before 1799. The reprint segment of the business grew, and in 1959 Mr. Chodak changed the company name to the Genealogical Publishing Company, Inc. (GPC). By the time of Mr. Chodak's death in 1968, publishing revenues were on par with sales of old books.

Over the next thirty years, GPC completed its metamorphosis to a specialty publisher. It ended its book dealership and liquidated its inventory of old books. Under the direction of Barry Chodak, Jules's son, and managing editor Michael Tepper, GPC emerged as the leading publisher of genealogical reference books and research manuals. One critical episode in this transformation occurred in 1969, when a local genealogist/attorney delivered the manuscript of a genealogy textbook to the GPC staff at the World Conference on Records in Salt Lake City. Four years later, in 1973, the publication of Val Greenwood's Researcher's Guide to American Genealogy set the standard for commercial book publishing in genealogy. Revised and updated through three editions, this work continues to be the reference book that U.S. genealogists reach for when they need assistance!

Val Greenwood's textbook represented the first of over 100 guidebooks or genealogy how-to books published by GPC. Additional titles ranged over numerous facets of American genealogy, such as census research, old handwriting, state-by-state research, ethnic genealogy, new technology, and more. Nor did we limit our attention to the United States. In time, we produced titles devoted to genealogical research in Canada, Italy, Poland, Germany, and the European continent as a whole. Still other books dwelt on Chinese surnames, British and Irish research, and Hispanic America.

Notwithstanding the spate of how-to books, most of our titles are collections of genealogical source records or compiled genealogies. The selection of topics is broad, from the more common marriage records, wills, deeds and land instruments, vital records, pensions, and ships' passenger records to apprenticeships, adoptions, and age determinations. These compilations include collections of genealogies on a particular theme (Virginia, New England, Revolutionary War veterans, etc.) by a single author, multi-volume extractions of genealogy articles from leading genealogy journals such as the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, the Pennsylvania Genealogical Magazine, and The New England Historical and Genealogical Register, to name just three.

Most, but not quite all, of GPC publications have two things in common: Their coverage is limited to colonies/states east of the Mississippi River, and to the period prior to the American Civil War. In fact, many of our books can assist researchers hoping to extend their genealogies to their ancestral homelands in the 18th, 17th, or 16th century. In a typical year, GPC publishes as many as forty original works in genealogy, written or compiled by experts in the field.

Clearfield Company was established in 1989 to market and distribute GPC's overruns and remainders. Since the early 1990s it has also published original and out-of-print titles that have a slightly more specialized focus in the fields of genealogy, local history, folklore, and Americana. Clearfield publishes about 150 titles each year, and it has made available hundreds of discount reprints that otherwise would remain out of print. Over the years, GPC and Clearfield have published more than 2,000 books.

We will resume our coverage of GPC/Clearfield's 50-year saga with its entry into the electronic phase of the genealogy publishing in next week's issue of "Genealogy Pointers."

=====

CDs DISCOUNTED IN JULY

We have reduced the prices on the following six CDs by $10 apiece until July 31, 2009. If you are on the trail of ancestors who lived in Pennsylvania, Virginia, South Carolina, or one of the states of the Deep South (Alabama, Arkansas & Mississippi), this could be your lucky day. Similarly, if your ancestors were French Protestants (Huguenots) who fled the absolutism of King Louis XIV, you can get your hands on a great collection of imaged, indexed Huguenot reference books. Ordinarily available at a fraction of the cost of the actual books themselves, Huguenot Settlers in America, 1600S-1900s, is selling for $10 below retail at this time. Please read on for details.

HUGUENOT SETTLERS IN AMERICA, 1600s-1900s

This CD is by far the best value in Huguenot genealogy. It contains page images of 16 separate Huguenot publications, including George Reaman's "The Trail of the Huguenots." The CD not only chronicles the story of this great Diaspora but also preserves the identities of thousands upon thousands of Huguenot emigrants to the Americas and beyond. Fully searchable via its electronic index, this CD provides the equivalent of a comprehensive library of Huguenot history and, quite possibly, just the link you need to your own Huguenot ancestors.

Was $39.99 Now $29.99

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=7600&NLC-GenPointers1

PENNSYLVANIA Biographies and Genealogies, 1600s-1800s

A unique blend of family history and biography, this CD names 315,000 individuals who lived primarily in southeastern and southwestern Pennsylvania during the colonial and early federal periods. Brought to life in an exhaustive series of historical sketches, essays, biographies, and genealogies, these early Pennsylvanians are the ancestors of hundreds of thousands of individuals living today. The CD contains 17 volumes of biographies, county histories, and genealogies--all conveniently accessed by means of a single electronic index.

Was $39.99 Now $29.99

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=7530&NLC-GenPointers1

EGLE'S NOTES AND QUERIES OF PENNSYLVANIA, 1700s-1800s

This CD offers unprecedented advantages and savings to anyone undertaking research in central Pennsylvania. Containing the twelve volumes of William Henry Egle's celebrated "Notes and Queries," it is the most important multi-volume work on the genealogy, biography, and history of central Pennsylvania ever published. Included in its nearly 5,000 pages are a vast number of genealogies, family sketches, and biographies, as well as extensive lists of early settlers and soldiers of the various wars, including the French and Indian War, the Revolutionary War, and the War of 1812. In addition, the work encompasses an impressive array of genealogical source records--early wills, church records, marriage and death records, tax lists, and lists of early immigrants and frontiersmen.

Was $39.99 Now $29.99

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=7019&NLC-GenPointers1

THE DEEP SOUTH: Genealogical Records of Alabama, Arkansas, and Mississippi, 1700s-1800s

This Family Archive CD covers the core genealogical works dealing with the Deep South. Altogether, some 150,000 individuals are named in a wide-ranging collection of census returns, probate, marriage, military, vital records, and family histories--all brought together in this one CD with a single, integrated index.

Was $39.99 Now $29.99

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=7527&NLC-GenPointers1

EARLY SOUTH CAROLINA SETTLERS (CD)

This Family Archive CD includes a great many of the earliest surviving South Carolina source records, among them census records, ships' passenger lists, naturalization records, land warrants and grants, and probate records. Originally published in eleven books by GPC, images of every page of those books can be accessed instantaneously on this CD by means of an electronic index of 125,000 names. Among the many great source records included are the first two censuses for the state of South Carolina (1790 and 1800), an index to all wills recorded in the state before 1782, a complete list of naturalization records extending from 1783 to 1850, and a list of lands (and grantors) granted by North Carolina for property now situated in South Carolina.

Was $39.99 Now $29.99

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=7517&NLC-GenPointers1

VIRGINIA MILITARY RECORDS: Colonial Wars, Revolutionary War, War of 1812

This Family Archive CD contains a definitive collection of books dealing with the military records of Virginia in the colonial wars, the Revolutionary War, and the War of 1812. Naming 275,000 members of the militia and the established army, the books included on this CD are the undisputed favorites in their respective fields. From Lloyd Bockstruck's "Virginia Colonial Soldiers," to John Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution," to the monumental "Muster Rolls and Payrolls of Virginia Militia in the War of 1812," the contents of this CD cover the entire spectrum of Virginia's early military history.

Was $39.99 Now $29.99

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=7121&NLC-GenPointers1

=====

WESTWARD MIGRATION THROUGH VIRGINIA'S YORK RIVER BASIN

From time to time we have spoken about the colonial migration routes our forebears traced as they ventured westward; today, we zero in on the narrow stretch of the Virginia

Tidewater that figured in the westerly movement of the majority of 18th-century pioneers—the York River Basin.

As John W. Gwathmey has written in Twelve Virginia Counties Where the Western Migration Began, “The principal avenue of this advance was through a narrow strip of counties, and it had its beginning in the basin of the York River.” The counties comprising this strip included Gloucester, New Kent, King William, Hanover, King and Queen, Essex, Caroline, Goochland, Louisa, Orange, Albemarle, and Augusta. A number of the standouts of Virginia’s westward expansion originated in these counties. For example, Kentucky pioneer Thomas Walker was a native of King and Queen and lived part of his life in Albemarle. North Carolina founding father Richard Henderson, who employed Daniel Boone, was from Hanover. General George Rogers Clark was of Caroline County fame, while Nathaniel Massie, founder of Chillicothe, Ohio, hailed from Goochland. Finally, future U.S. senators from Kentucky Henry Clay and Joseph R. Underwood migrated from Hanover and Goochland counties, respectively.

Mr. Gwathmey, explains the impetus for the migration in this way: “It was not altogether a coincidence that such a small area in Virginia played such a large part in the settlement of the vast regions west of the mountains. Population followed the land grants, and the innate love of the soil of the English-speaking people was an important factor. For many years after the Jamestown Colony was planted in 1607, the settlements hugged the navigable river-courses. Men finally obtained grants in the outlying sections of their counties and their sons cleared away the forests and settled upon these lands. As population increased, new counties were formed.

“Finally the Valley of Virginia was reached and parceled out in vast grants to men who were interested in inducing settlement upon their lands. Tracts were granted along the Ohio River which eventually played a large part in the settlement of the valley of la Belle Riviere. Enormous grants to men in eastern Virginia were made as far west as the Mississippi.”

The York River Basin was hardly the only launching pad for westward migration. There were as many as sixteen major migration trails along the Eastern Seaboard beginning, more or less, in the 18th century--trails like the National Road from Baltimore, the Old South Carolina State Road from Charleston, the Southern Road from Philadelphia. What books like Gwathmey’s underscore, however, is the importance of identifying the families that inhabited the counties that straddled a trail.

Twelve Virginia Counties Where the Western Migration Began reconstructs a great deal about the inhabitants and the artifacts (homes, landmarks, roads, architecture, etc.) of the York River Basin on the eve of and during the period of migration. To the delight of genealogists, Mr. Gwathmey has sketched out the history of each county, its institutions, and byways, naming over 3,000 individuals in all. For anyone whose ancestor might have taken in this historic migration, "Twelve Virginia Counties" is a must:

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=2435&NLC-GenPointers1

RELATED JAMES RIVER BASIN TITLES . . .

SETTLERS BY THE LONG GREY TRAIL. Some Pioneers of Old Augusta County [Virginia]. Low in stock

Many of the early Valley of Virginia settlers resided on or near the Long Grey Trail, and the author, J. Houston Harrison, brings the full weight of his acumen to bear on the Valley settlements, more especially on that part of Augusta County later formed into Rockingham. There was perhaps no family more intimately associated with the early history of Rockingham County than the Harrisons and their connections, the county seat itself being named for one of them.

Appropriately, then, this work sets forth a detailed genealogy of the Harrisons of Augusta and their Harrison cousins throughout Virginia and in large parts of the U.S. and Britain. The author also traces the ancestry of about fifty other families who settled in this area, and he provides articles on colonial and Indian wars and the Revolution, documentary accounts of political upheaval and transition, analyses of Virginia Valley migrations (including German, Scotch-Irish, and Pennsylvanian migrations), and sketches of early churches, militia, and courts.

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=2585&NLC-GenPointers1

TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS OF ORANGE COUNTY, VIRGINIA

The work in hand records tombstone inscriptions in 150 cemeteries, thirty-three church cemeteries, and some half-dozen proprietary cemeteries, resulting in the enumeration of perhaps as many as three thousand Orange County inhabitants, giving dates of birth and death and frequently specifying family relationships. To keep the data within practical limits, the author recorded the inscriptions of persons who either died before 1900 or were born before 1850.

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=3235&NLC-GenPointers1

NEW BOOKS FOR JULY

In July, Genealogical.com has released thirteen short-run editions of useful reference works. These include a new volume of Cherokee records from Jeff Bowen, Volume XX in Vernon Skinner's series of testamentary records from the Maryland Prerogative Court, and the second volume in Dr. David Dobson's People of Ireland series.

You can also choose from a host of reprints in July. For example, the three-volume Pennsylvania-German Church Records is back in print--at a special introductory price.

So is Denise Larson's groundbreaking work on the pioneers of Quebec, Companions of Champlain. We have also reissued a number of Pennsylvania, Virginia, Tennessee, Georgia, and other southern works, any one of which merits shelf space in the serious genealogist's personal library.

Read on for a thumbnail description of each of our July books, or click on the link to the following page on our website where you'll find short descriptions of each:

http://www.genealogical.com/content/products_new_genealogy.html&NLC-GenPointers1

EASTERN CHEROKEE CENSUS, CHEROKEE, NORTH CAROLINA, 1923-1929, Taken by Agent James E. Henderson
Volume III (1927-1929)

This is the third and concluding volume in a series of transcriptions of census material for the Eastern Band of Cherokees between 1923 and 1929. This series concerns the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians from Cherokee, North Carolina, living on the reservation known as the Qualla Boundary, and marks the first time the 1923 to 1929 Eastern Cherokee data has been made available as a publication. Individuals enumerated in the Indian Agent censuses are descendants of the Cherokees who were not removed to Indian Territory during the period 1838 to 1839 in the migration known as the "Trail of Tears." Information provided in the census almost invariably gives each person's name, family relationship, date of birth, and sex--information that is critical in any genealogical research.

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9800&NLC-GenPointers1

THE PEOPLE OF IRELAND, 1600-1699. Part Two

This work draws on primary sources, such as published government records, together with references found in Irish, English, Scottish, and Dutch archives. The single most important source used in this work is the published Calendar of State Papers relating to Ireland. Published in London between 1860 and 1910, these volumes contain a storehouse of genealogical information for the period 1509 to 1670.

The aim The People of Ireland, now in its second volume, is to provide information on ordinary people throughout 17th-century Ireland--with the exception of people of Scottish origin who have been dealt with in Dr. David Dobson's Scots-Irish Links, 1575-1725 series. Thus, the people listed here are predominantly of native Irish and immigrant English origin, as well as a handful of Huguenot and Dutch immigrants. For Part Two, Dr. Dobson provides sketches of about 1,800 additional inhabitants of Ireland, bringing the grand total so far uncovered in the series to 3,200.

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9700&NLC-GenPointers1

ABSTRACTS OF THE TESTAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS of the Prerogative Court of Maryland. Volume XX: 1734-1736 [Liber 29 (pp. 393-479) & 30 (pp. 1-207)] Compiler Vernon Skinner has completed the 20th volume of Abstracts of the Testamentary Proceedings of the Prerogative Court of Maryland, a series of books based upon this important source for Maryland genealogists. The series is arranged, volume by volume, chronologically by court session. Volume XX identifies an additional 7,500 inhabitants of the Province of Maryland in the years just prior to 1736. For the most part, the transcriptions state the names of the principals (testators, heirs, witnesses, administrators, and so forth) as well as details of bequests, names of slaves, appraisers, and more.

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9948&NLC-GenPointers1

COMPANIONS OF CHAMPLAIN: Founding Families of Quebec, 1608-1635
Revised Edition

Author Denise Larson produced Companions of Champlain to honor the 400th anniversary of the founding of Quebec City and to enable North Americans on both sides of the border to appreciate more fully their French-Canadian heritage. Although Champlain and his wife, Helene Boulle, did not have children, his companions did. The original eighteen pioneer families who inhabited Quebec during Champlain's lifetime formed the nucleus of French-Canadian culture from which a new society sprang. They are the focal point of this work. Other important features include maps, an illustration of Champlain's 1603 astrolabe, references, five appendices, lineage and pedigree charts with citations, and a comprehensive index.

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9914&NLC-GenPointers1

PENNSYLVANIA GERMAN CHURCH RECORDS of Births, Baptisms, Marriages, Burials, Etc., from the Pennsylvania German Society Proceedings and Addresses. In Three Volumes

Here in three volumes the genealogist has access to all of the church records ever published in the "Proceedings and Addresses of the Pennsylvania German Society." Before the Society ceased publishing church records, it had succeeded in preserving the records of a great many key churches in southeastern Pennsylvania--Lancaster, York, Lehigh, Montgomery, and Northampton--the heartland of Pennsylvania-German country. In these three volumes are births, baptisms, marriages, and burials, the records that identify people and their relationships to one another--not only parents and children, husbands and wives, but witnesses and sponsors as well. A staggering 125,000 persons are mentioned in these records, and every one of them is cited in the new indexes, which have been painstakingly compiled especially for this publication.

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=4564&NLC-GenPointers1

MERION IN THE WELSH TRACT. With Sketches of the Townships of Haverford and Radnor. Historical and Genealogical Collections Concerning the Welsh Barony in the Province of Pennsylvania Settled by the Cymric Quakers in 1682

This is the history and genealogy of the Great Welsh Tract in Pennsylvania granted by William Penn in 1682. Detailed genealogies or extensive genealogical notes can be found on some twenty-five main families, many of which figured prominently in the history of colonial Pennsylvania.

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=2225&NLC-GenPointers1

VIRGINIA MIGRATIONS--HANOVER COUNTY. Wills, Deeds, Depositions, Invoices, Letters, and Other Documents of Historical and Genealogical Interest. Volume I (1723-1850) & Volume II (1743-1871)

The authors succeeded in extracting those documents pertaining to Hanover County that survived the burning of Richmond in April. The surviving materials consist of a great many deeds, wills, inventories, accounts, letters, depositions, etc., pertaining to Hanover County for the colonial and early Federal periods. Many of the suits, in particular, stem from the period prior to the French and Indian War. One of the richest sources examined by the Glazebrooks were the files of the United States District Court at Richmond. With references to nearly 5,000 early inhabitants of Hanover County, this hard-to-find sourcebook will unquestionably be in great demand among researchers.

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9356&NLC-GenPointers1

EARLY VIRGINIA FAMILIES ALONG THE JAMES RIVER. Volume III: James City County & Surry County

This is the third volume in a series by Mrs. Foley. The purpose of this book is to assist the researcher in finding colonial and immigrant ancestors in James City County and in that part of James City County south of the James River that was cut off to form Surry County in 1652. To accomplish this, Mrs. Foley abstracted the land records from the fourteen volumes of Patent Books for the period 1623-1732 that are now located in the Virginia State Archives. The main body of the text consists of a chronological series of abstracts giving the name of the James City County or Surry County patentee, the location and acreage of the patent and date of settlement, and, most important, the names of the thousands of settlers brought over as "headrights."

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=1953&NLC-GenPointers1

THE FIRST SEVENTEEN YEARS--Virginia, 1607-1624

In the first half of this book, the author follows the key events leading to the settlement and survival of the Virginia colony from 1607 to 1624. The second half pinpoints the spread of population in short essays about the founders and founding of some fifty early 17th-century settlements.

[http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9137
&NLC-GenPointers1](http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9137&NLC-GenPointers1)

GUIDE TO COUNTY RECORDS AND GENEALOGICAL RESOURCES IN TENNESSEE

Based largely on the Tennessee county records microfilmed by the LDS Family History Library, this book is an inventory of extant county records and their dates of coverage. For each county the following data is given: formation, county seat, names and addresses of libraries and genealogical societies, published records (alphabetical by author), W.P.A. typescript records, microfilmed records (LDS), manuscripts, and church records. There also is a comprehensive list of statewide reference works.

[http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=2086
&NLC-GenPointers1](http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=2086&NLC-GenPointers1)

ALABAMA AND MISSISSIPPI CONNECTIONS: Historical and Biographical Sketches of Families on Both Sides of the Tombigbee River

Mrs. Jacobson here focuses upon families who settled along the Tombigbee River, an area that today occupies all or part of the Alabama counties of Marion, Fayette, Lamar, Tuscaloosa, Greene, Pickens, and Sumter; and the Mississippi counties of Lee, Itawamba, Monroe, Webster, Clay, Choctaw, Oktibbeha, Lowndes, Winston, and Noxubee. She covers the founding of each of the seventeen counties comprising the Tombigbee River area, with references to the region's indigenous Creeks, Choctaws, Chickasaws, and Cherokees; the phases of French, Spanish, and British settlement; and the consolidation of the region under U.S. control following the War of 1812. Doubtless of greatest interest to researchers will be the author's genealogical and biographical essays on twenty-two pioneer families of the region.

[http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9344
&NLC-GenPointers1](http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9344&NLC-GenPointers1)

A GAZETTEER OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA: Embracing a Particular Description of the Counties, Towns, Villages, Rivers, etc. and Whatsoever is Usual in Geographies and Minute Statistical Works . . . Third Edition

Roughly half of the volume is devoted to detailed descriptions of places in Georgia of every conceivable size and shape--counties, towns, villages, post offices, rivers, streams, creeks, mountains, ridges, peninsulas, islands, missionary stations--many of which are no longer in use but are likely to crop up in a genealogical investigation. Preceding the gazetteer itself is an excellent overview of Georgia history and an account of the institutions and living conditions in evidence at the time of the book's original publication in 1837. Included are chapters on the founding of Georgia, the state's role in the American Revolution and thereafter, and lists of federal and state officials.

[http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9744
&NLC-GenPointers1](http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=9744&NLC-GenPointers1)

RECORDS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY, GEORGIA

County residents are listed under one or more of the following categories: headrights and bounty grants (important because Washington County was one of only two Georgia counties where bounty grants were made to soldiers of the Revolution); 1805 lottery registrants; 1832 lottery fortunate drawers; 1820, 1830, 1840, and 1850 censuses; surveyors' records; military records; marriages; poor school records; tax defaulters; and early settlers.

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=1411&NLC-GenPointers1

=====

WHAT'S NEW at the Genealogy Warehouse for July

This month we are adding to the Genealogy Warehouse (1) a large collection of 17th-century indentured servant records, (2) land and prerogative court records for colonial Maryland, and (3) 18th-century baptism and burial records from Christ Church, Philadelphia.

The Genealogy Warehouse is our bargain basement for genealogy books. Each of the roughly 200 titles in the Warehouse has been discounted by 40%, 50%, or more below its original price. You will discover books on all aspects of genealogy there, so make it a habit to visit the Genealogy Warehouse every month to learn if our newest bargains have a bearing on your research.

In addition to the three new arrivals this month, you will also find below a list of Warehouse books covering the Southern states of the U.S. Still don't see something you want among the July books? Browse the complete collection of Genealogy Warehouse titles at: http://www.genealogical.com/content/products_warehouse.html&NLC-GenPointers1

New

BRISTOL AND AMERICA. A Record of the First Settlers in the Colonies of North America, 1654-1685

This volume presents a list of more than 10,000 indentured servants who embarked from the British port of Bristol for Virginia, Maryland, New England, and other parts between 1654 and 1685, giving information on the passengers' origin and destination. Records the name of practically every person who left England for Virginia, Maryland, and the West Indies for the period covered.

Was $22.50 Now $16.50

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=2560&NLC-GenPointers1

New

LAND OFFICE AND PREROGATIVE COURT RECORDS of Colonial Maryland
About two-thirds of this work is devoted to a history of the land administered by colonial Maryland, with a detailed inventory of Patents, Warrants, Proprietary Leases, Rent Rolls, Debt Books, etc. The remainder consists of a study of the colonial Prerogative Court, which had control over probate matters.

Was $17.50 Now $12.95

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=2590&NLC-GenPointers1

New

BAPTISMS AND BURIALS from the Records of Christ Church, Philadelphia, 1709-1760

Christ Church was established in 1695 and was the first Episcopal Church in Philadelphia. For a number of years it served the entire Anglican community. By 1760, when St. Peter's was split off from it, more than 10,000 baptisms and burials were recorded in its registers.

Was $30.00 Now $22.50

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=2695&NLC-GenPointers1

Warehouse Books on Southern Roots

THE RECONSTRUCTED 1790 CENSUS of Georgia

The compilers of this work extracted data found in wills, deeds, tax digests, court minutes, voters' lists, newspapers, and other contemporary records--records roughly contemporaneous with the 1790 federal census--and they have identified about 15,000 Georgians who were living at the time of that census. Counties covered include all of those formed before 1790, i.e. Burke, Camden, Chatham, Effingham, Franklin, Glynn, Greene, Liberty, Richmond, Washington, and Wilkes, as well as Columbia and Elbert counties, which were formed just after the census was taken.

Was $28.50 Now $16.95

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=1410&NLC-GenPointers1

SKETCHES OF PROMINENT TENNESSEANS Containing Biographies and Records of Many of the Families Who Have Attained Prominence in Tennessee

As many as 259 prominent 19th-century Tennesseans are profiled in this extraordinary book. The biographical sketches include numerous details about the lives of the subjects and their families.

Was $45.00 Now $25.95

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=5508&NLC-GenPointers1

NORTH CAROLINA LAND GRANTS in South Carolina

Prior to the resolution of the border dispute between North and South Carolina in 1772, North Carolina had issued more than 1,000 grants for land in an area that is now South Carolina but which was then thought to be in the North Carolina counties of Anson, Bladen, Mecklenburg, and Tryon. The records of these grants--plats and warrants for the most part--form the basis of this work. The data provided includes the name of the grantee, the file entry or grant number, the relevant book and page of the original record books, the location of the grant, the names of owners of adjoining property, and the dates of the various instruments.

Was $20.00 Now $12.00

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=2783&NLC-GenPointers1

THE MORAVIANS IN GEORGIA, 1735-1740 (Low in stock)

This book documents the brief history of the Moravian community in Georgia, commencing with an overview of the sect and continuing through the negotiations between Brethren leader August Spangenberg and Georgia founder General James Oglethorpe, establishment of the Brethren community in Savannah, missionary work among the Creeks, and the departure of the Moravians for England, Pennsylvania, and other locations. Genealogists will find numerous references to transfers of land involving the Moravians, settlement maps, passenger lists of Moravian arrivals, a brief list of Moravian deaths in Georgia, and a name index to the persons mentioned in the text.

Was $26.50 Now $15.00

http://www.genealogical.com/index.php?main_page=product_info&item_number=2080&NLC-GenPointers1

BLOG: Revolutionary War Records

If you visit our blog this week (www.genealogyandfamilyhistory.com), you can read an extremely helpful primer by Carolyn Barkley on Revolutionary War records for genealogists. If you are a newcomer to the blog, be sure to check out the other great articles that Carolyn has been posting there since the beginning of the year!

CONTACT US

www.genealogical.com is the online home of Genealogical Publishing Company and its affiliate, Clearfield Company. For general information about our companies and their products, please e-mail us at info@genealogical.com. To order online, you may e-mail us at sales@genealogical.com.

To order other than online, you may:

1. Order by mail: 3600 Clipper Mill Road, Suite 260 - Baltimore, Maryland 21211-1953
2. Fax your order to 1-410-752-8492
3. Call toll-free to our sales department at 1-800-296-6687